ALQ Evaluation Transformation Competency-Based Assessments

Competency-Based Assessments

Evaluating both Airmen's behaviors/actions and outcomes/results provides a more accurate, holistic performance assessment.

- Values. Competencies are what you know and can do; Performance is what you do and how well you do it; Evaluations demonstrate performance in alignment with Air Force values.
- Action Order-Airmen. Future Air Force success is just as dependent upon the skills and behaviors Airmen have and are working towards as their past outcomes achieved.
- Development. Allows us to more deliberately develop our Airmen by offering feedback on both their achievements and behaviors.
- Whole Person. Raters measure Airmen's performance using a whole person concept relative to the Ratee's specific rank, specialty, level of responsibility, and assigned duties throughout the entire rating period.

“We must have evaluation systems that provide constructive feedback, evaluate against qualities we value, and highlight future potential.”

– General Charles Q. Brown, Jr., CSAF 22 –

ALQ Evaluation Transformation Performance Statements

Performance Statements

Narrative-style writing and plain language to describe Airmen's performance; they are efficient and clear, improving the ability to understand performance correctly and equitably.

- Standalone. Each Performance Statement is a standalone sentence and includes two elements: 1) action and 2) at least one impact, result, or outcome.
- Readability. Performance Statements provide readability by using plain language and avoiding uncommon acronyms and abbreviations.
 - If using acronyms and abbreviations, only utilize those identified on the approved Air Force Acronym and Abbreviation List, unless noted by an approved category.
 - The list and ruleset are available here:
<https://www.afpc.af.mil/Career-Management/Acronyms/>
- Search “ALQ Writing Guide” in myFSS for knowledge article containing suggestions and examples

ALQ Evaluation Transformation Synergy

Synergy Across All Airmen

Develops the mission-focused Airmen we need while reinforcing the development of behaviors our Air Force values across all Enlisted/Officer ranks and duty specialties.

- Simple and Consistent. Administration of ALQ Evaluations is both simple and consistent across all Total Force Enlisted and Officer Airmen.
 - All Airmen are evaluated, according to their rank and responsibilities, through the lens of MPAs.
 - Evaluation variables are limited to those specifically required to make effective talent management decisions within the force structure (i.e., stratification, forced distribution, future roles).
- Standards. ALQ Evaluations enable clear and equitable understanding of performance; they assess behavior in alignment with published Air Force values and capture performance towards mission-driven outcomes.

“The synergy between the Officer and Enlisted evaluation systems is a huge win for how we develop our Airmen to build the Air Force our nation needs.”

– CMSAF JoAnne S. Bass, CMSAF 19 –

- ALQ Evaluation: assessment of behaviors and/or performance the Air Force values with mission-driven outcomes and developmental feedback
- ALQ Performance Brief: ALQ Evaluation's final output used for talent management decisions (replacement for the traditional OPR/EPR)
- Higher Level Reviewer (HLR): final evaluator in rating chain and closes out the evaluation
