

Sir or Ma'am,

Individual Reservists who are unable to complete Sexual Assault Prevention and Response training with their active-duty unit may perform training online.

In a memo dated May 14, 2015, Maj. Gen. Richard S. Haddad, AFRC vice commander, directs IRs to make every possible attempt to complete the face-to-face SAPR training. However, when that is not feasible due to scheduling conflicts, the online training is available to fulfill the training requirements. The memo can be accessed at <http://www.arpc.afrc.af.mil/Portals/4/Documents/RIO/RIO-SAPR-Training-ETP-memo.pdf> or on the HQ RIO website under Resources.

To complete the online SAPR training, visit www.arpc.afrc.af.mil/home/hqrio/SAPRTraining. After completing the course, print your certificate and send it to your unit reserve coordinator or unit training manager to update your training record in ADLS. [Note: The website and/or embedded videos may be slow to load when accessing from a .mil network. Please hit F5 to refresh and allow the videos sufficient time to load before viewing. If you receive an error and cannot access this training from the .mil network, you will need to complete the training from a home computer or a computer outside the .mil domain.]

If you have already attended the 90-minute SAPR briefing and only need to complete the two required breakout sessions, you can complete those portions of the training using the link above and choosing "Breakout Sessions." This option requires you to provide your URC or UTM a copy of the attendance roster or a message from your supervisor indicating you attended the 90-minute training along with the certificate of completion.

Please direct all questions regarding SAPR training to your URC or servicing HQ RIO detachment (Detachment Directory).
