This message is an update to ARCNet message 15-001, Action required to continue Roth TSP

Sir or Ma'am,

After receiving some great questions from you regarding the changes affecting how Roth TSP deductions are made, including the need to re-establish the deduction by Jan. 31, additional research has found that these changes only apply to members on Active Guard Reserve tours.

Individual Reservists who contribute to their Roth TSP will continue to elect a dollar amount and do not need to update this information to continue making the deduction.

That said, it is a good idea to periodically check to verify that your pay and deduction information is correct. This can be accomplished by logging into your MyPay account and reviewing your information.

Thanks for your input and have a great weekend!

Commander, HQ Individual Reservist Readiness and Integration Organization
