

- Mission: Seamlessly integrate war-time ready Individual Reserve forces to meet Air Force and Combatant Commander requirements.
- Vision: Individual capability, leveraged worldwide.
- HQ RIO standardizes the processes for service members in the Individual Reservist program. The IR force is comprised of Individual Mobilization Augmentees (IMAs), who are accountable to the Air Force Reserve Command and assigned to funded, active-duty positions, or who are Participating Individual Ready Reservists (PIRRs), assigned to HQ Air Reserve Personnel Center. Both IMAs and PIRRs augment active-component missions and are rated by active-component or government agency supervisors.
- The IR force has a wing span that reaches across 53 separate major commands, combatant commands and government agencies.
- Individual Reservists hail from all 50 States and Washington D.C.
- Individual Reservists serve at locations in 43 states, Washington D.C. and 13 countries (U.S., Japan, Italy, Great Britain, Germany, Republic of Korea, Portugal, Brussels, Turkey, Guam, Spain, Russia)
