

ARPC SNAPSHOT

The Headquarters Air Reserve Personnel Center is a direct reporting unit to Headquarters Air Force Reserve Command, Robins AFB, Ga. The center provides support to nearly 1.3 million Active Duty, Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve and retired members.

MISSION
Deliver Total Force personnel services to enhance warfighting readiness

VISION
Innovative leader in personnel services, throughout the Airman lifecycle

MOTTO
Serving Generations of Airmen

Lt Gen Richard Scobee
Chief of Air Force Reserve
Commander, Air Force Reserve Command

CMSgt Timothy White
Command Chief,
Air Force Reserve Command

Col Kelli Smiley
Commander, Headquarters Air
Reserve Personnel Center

Col Carol Miller
Vice Commander, Headquarters Air
Reserve Personnel Center

CMSgt Billie Baber
Command Chief,
Headquarters Air Reserve
Personnel Center

CAFR STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

Prioritize strategic depth
and accelerate readiness

Develop resilient leaders

Reform the organization

HQ ARPC PRIORITIES

Operational
Excellence

Professional and Resilient Airmen

HQ ARPC LINES OF EFFORT

Program Optimization

Innovation

Resources

Training

Readiness

Manning

41 DEVELOPMENT TEAM BOARDS HOSTED,
PROVIDING CAREER VECTORS
FOR 9,217 AIRMEN

9,887 OFFICERS EVALUATED
FOR PROMOTION,
4,957 SELECTED

PAID $10.4M IN TUITION
ASSISTANCE FOR RESERVISTS

165,636 EVALUATIONS FINALIZED

10,114 ARC MEMBERS
TRANSFERRED TO RETIRED STATUS

10,588 RETIREMENT
ORDERS GENERATED

1,405 AGR ASSIGNMENTS PROCESSED

HQ ARPC provides exceptional customer service to generations of Airmen across all components by integrating an Active Duty, Guard, Reserve, and civilian workforce.

CIVILIANS 170
The federal civilian workforce makes up the largest demographic here

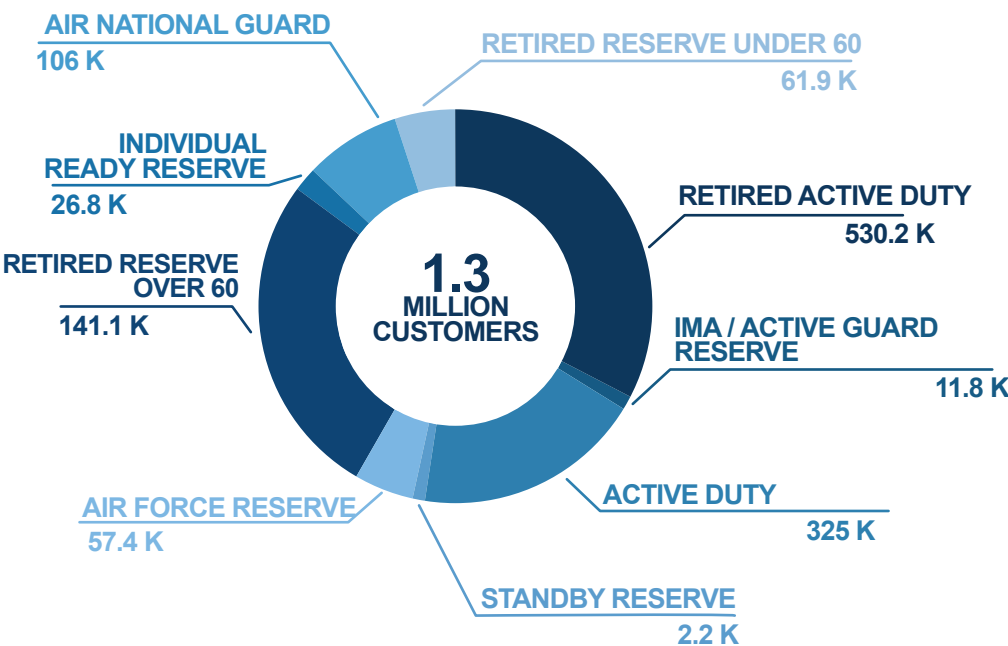

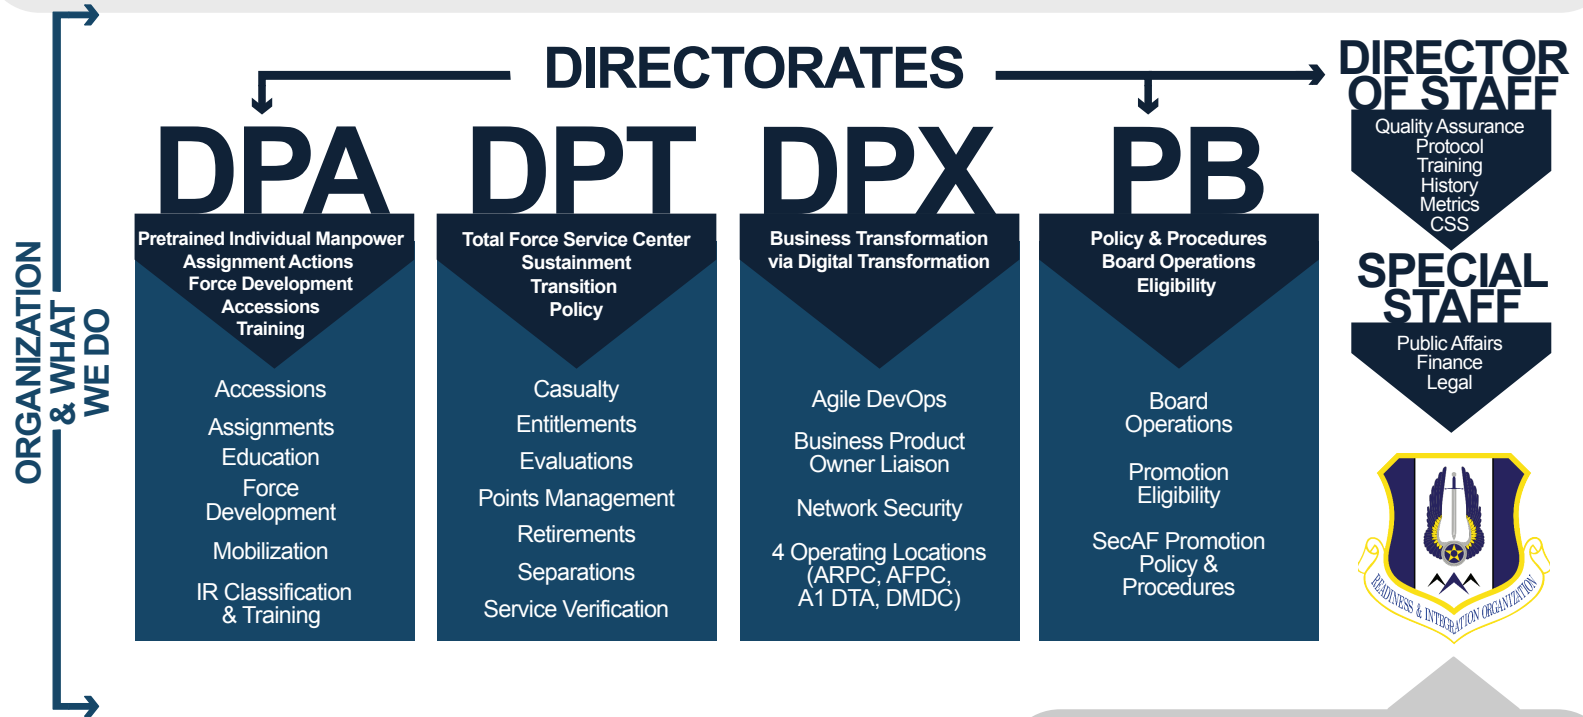

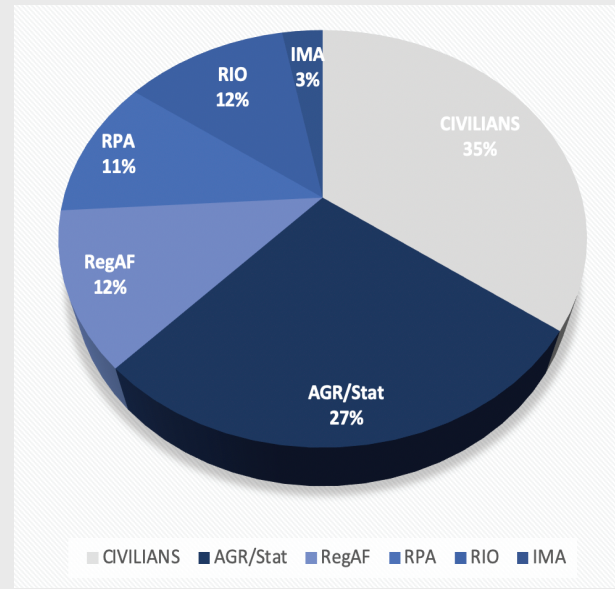

AFR AGR/ANG STAT TOUR 131
Active Guard and Reserve members providing active duty level continuity

REG AF 59
Regular Air Force, also known as Active Duty Air Force

RPA 56
Reserve Personnel Action, Guard and Reservists on provisional active duty orders to complete special projects and prevent manning shortfalls

HQ RIO 59
Headquarters Individual Reservist Readiness and Integration Organization manages the readiness of the Individual Reservist Force to meet Air Force and Combatant Commander Requirements

IMA 13
Individual Mobilization Augmentees fulfilling Reserve service commitment

HQ IR READINESS & INTEGRATION ORGANIZATION

The Headquarters Individual Reservist Readiness and Integration Organization works to seamlessly integrate wartime-ready Individual Reserve (IR) forces to meet Air Force and Combatant Commander requirements. HQ RIO is responsible for managing the readiness of the IR force and standardizing the processes associated with getting IRs to the fight.

VISION
Individual capability, leveraged world-wide!

PURPOSE
Present and Execute a Trained & Ready IR Force
Exercise By-Law Concurrent ADCON
Advise & Educate all Stakeholders on IR Tenets