

Initial AGR Tour Medical Certification

1. In collaboration with ARPC/DPA, initiate, coordinate, and approve requests of Active Guard Reserve (AGR), Traditional Reserve, and when appropriate, Air Reserve Technicians.
2. The Initial AGR Tour Medical Certification, along with the Commander's Release Notification Letter, is required for all initial AGR tours..

References: (a) DAFMAN 36-2114, 24 May 2021, Management of the Air Force Reserve Individual Reserve (IR) and Full-Time Support (FTS) Programs.
 (b) DAFMAN 48-123, 08 December 2020, Medical Examinations and Standards.

Note: all new AGR program members will need to obtain this Initial AGR Tour Medical Certification.

Certification Section

1. _____ have overdue Individual Medical Readiness requirements IAW AFI DODI 6025.19, Individual Medical Readiness.
2. _____ have a current medical retention waiver with an Assignment Limitation Code (ALC). If yes, submit to AFRC/SGP, take no further action on this MFR, final disposition will be provided by AFRC/SGP. If yes – provide Which ALC, date of issuance and date of expiration.

	ALC	Date of issuance	Date of Exp
--	------------	-------------------------	--------------------
3. _____ have an unresolved or unadjudicated condition below retention standards IAW DAFMAN 48-123, Medical Exams and Standards and the Medical Standards Directory (MSD).
4. _____ medically certified for active duty in the Air Force Reserve on an AGR tour as a _____ with assignment to _____ IAW DAFMAN 48-123, paragraph 9.9. and Table A2.3. IAW DAFMAN 36-2114, paragraph 6.3.
5. Reason for denied certification – _____ Overdue IMR item _____ unresolved/un-adjudicated condition disqualifying for retention or _____ other _____

Medical Designated Representative

Date:

Signature (Must be designated representative, i.e. doctors, nurse practitioners, or a physician assistant or fully trained and qualified Flight and Operational Medical Technician (FOMT) 4N071F from the ADMTF BOMC/FOMC or a Reserve Medical Unit with the AME mission)

Printed Name or Stamp: _____