

ARPC Frontline

At the frontline of customer service

ARPC Frontline is a resource the FSS community can reference to find the latest information and updates from the Headquarters Air Reserve Personnel Center. For more information about the notices, please follow the embedded links to the ARPC Digital Transformation webpage.

ARPC Notice: 240719-01

Topic: Pending FY24 January and February Requisitions

Impact: Air Force Reserve Airmen

BLUF: Effective September 1, 2024, action will be taken regarding pending FY24 requisitions from January and February.

ARPC Notice: 240719-02

Topic: Enlisted Joint Professional Military Education (EJPME) Retirement Points Update

Impact: Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve Airmen

BLUF: Per DoDI 1215.07 Reserve Component members are eligible for retirement points for ADL service approved courses.

ARPC Notice: 240719-03

Topic: New Higher-Level Reviewer (HLR) Policy for CGOs

Impact: Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve Airman

BLUF: On 8 Jul 2024, AFPC released the new HLR policy for CGOs.

ARPC Notice: 240719-04

Topic: Reserve Retirement Update

Impact: Air Force Reserve Airmen

BLUF: To improve customer service and increase efficiency, starting 1 August 2024, HQ ARPC/Retirements will no longer be placing applications in a waiting status.

Additional resources are available at:
HQ ARPC Information Toolbox on Teams

<https://www.arpc.afrc.af.mil/>

<https://www.af.mil/Policy-Updates/>

FSS Commanders and Superintendents can call the FSSE line for assistance or questions.